

DRAFT

Memorandum

To: Deputy Director for Administration
From: Director of Training

Subject: Program Authorization

Authorization is requested for the establishment of a General Intelligence Training Program, to be conducted at The Intelligence School.

Specifically, approval is requested for:-

1. A student T/O of 50 positions, grades 5 through 14 without limitation on the number of positions which may be filled at any given grade.
2. Authority to offer interim employment to individuals selected for the program and cleared for entrance on duty prior to the inauguration of the program.
3. A staff and faculty T/O of ten instructors and five supervisory and administrative people (grades and titles subject to Management and Classification approval).

The program is designed to train 50 students selected for career potential. The students and permanent staff and faculty will be permanently stationed at the School. Additional faculty support will be furnished by one or two day details of qualified representatives of the regular staffs and offices.
